

Open Faculty Positions – Mechanical Engineering at KAIST

The Department of Mechanical Engineering at Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (KAIST) is seeking applications for tenure-track faculty positions.

1. Fields

- Multiple openings for faculty positions at all ranks of professorship in all areas of mechanical engineering

2. Qualifications

- Applicants are expected to have demonstrated an excellent potential for both research and education at KAIST.
- Applicants with pioneering research initiatives, and/or strong industrial applications are all welcome.
- Applicants should have earned a Ph.D. level degree in her/his expertise area.

3. Application Schedule

- Faculty positions are applied to and filled year round until all the openings are filled.

4. How to Apply

- Please submit the following documents by email directly to Professor Doo Yong Lee, Head of Department of Mechanical Engineering.
 - A formal application in the designated application form - including summary of key achievements, plan of teaching and research
 - Academic/research achievements - including a publication list, research accomplishments, educational experience, and awards, etc.
 - Curriculum Vitae
 - Five representative publications

※ Do not include personal information (Photo, School and age).

5. Contacts

- Head of Department of Mechanical Engineering, Professor Doo Yong Lee (leedy@kaist.ac.kr)
- Inquiry: Ms. Hyang Mi Kim (khm@kaist.ac.kr)