

KAIST Safety & Health Management Policy

To fulfill its vision of becoming a "Global Value–Creative Leading University," KAIST shall create a safe environment for education and research and spread a culture of safety by establishing a system for safety and health management on campus, and at the same time, implement the following to build a sustainable campus that contributes to the prosperity and advancement of the country and humanity.

create a safe, pleasant research environment shall play a leading role in creating a safe and pleasant research environment by actively identifying hazard factors on campus and implementing preventive measures against accidents.

KAIST

shall exert efforts to raise safety awareness and spread a culture of safety through various programs such as the Safety Culture Campaign and Safety Day.

Establish a system for safety and health management

KAIST shall establish a safety and health management system for systematic management of safety and health, and regularly improve the system to prevent accidents.

KAIST

shall strengthen its emergency response system to protect members from contagious diseases, and exert efforts to build a safe, healthy campus. Protect membersfrom contagiousdiseases

Mar_, 2021

Kwang-Hyung Lee, President of KAIST