   ○ After checking/printing details of tuition fees through means listed above, you can make the payment to your personal virtual account number assigned to you by depositing, Internet banking, Telebanking, or CD/ATM etc. no matter what kinds of banking institutions you use. (E.g. Any Korean bank across the country, Nonghyup, Korea Post, etc.)

2) KAIST Scholarship students
   ○ After checking/printing details of tuition fees through means listed above, you can make the payment to two different virtual account numbers assigned to you by depositing, Internet banking, Telebanking, or CD/ATM etc. no matter what kinds of banking institutions you use. (E.g. Any Korean bank across the country, Nonghyup, Korea Post, etc.)
   ※ In case an academic advisor wants to directly pay the stipendⅡ(previously called the advisor's fee: 3,598,000 won) among the tuition on behalf of his/her students: The advisor for each department/major must either deposit it into the virtual account assigned to each student or transfer the payment to the designated account. (In this case, the student must pay only the amount(750,000 won) except the stipendⅡ among tuition. Be careful not to pay double.)

3) Students on General Scholarship
   ○ Those graduate students have two different virtual account numbers. (one assigned to a student and the other to his/her sponsoring company/organization) Each party should check the amount of tuition fees assigned and make the proper payment to the virtual accounts assigned to each.
   ○ If a sponsoring company/organization pays tuition fees of a student, a person in charge in the company can check "Notice/Bill of Tuition & Fees" and pay it accordingly. Please visit the following web site below.
   ⇒ Visit the following website (https://tuitionreal.kaist.ac.kr/payment.jsp)
   ⇒ Put in the student ID and date of birth of the student
